Hi Maureen,

Unfortunately, no word from GAO. I've left a voicemail with the attorney handling the case last week and I also emailed her earlier this week. Yesterday, I even called the main protest line and left a message but still have not received a call back. We have been waiting 4 weeks since the GAO attorney has received all of the information necessary to rule on our Motion to Dismiss. The whole thing is inexplicable, but I will continue to try and get through to someone there.

Hi Tommie,

All good here, hope you and your family are well too. I am still waiting for a response from GAO on my motion to dismiss which I filed in mid/late July. I have even left a vm with the GAO attorney early last week asking her what is going on, but have still not received a response. At least in the meantime, she has relieved us of the obligation of filing an Agency report while the motion is pending. I will call her again at the end of this week if I don't hear something sooner. Thanks.

Hi Ken,

Hope you and your family are well and staying safe. Just wanted to check with you to see if you had heard anything on the status of the BlueStone Environmental GAO protest. I believe you filed a motion to dismiss on 7/20, just wondering if you've heard anything yet.

Thanks, have a great day!
